

New Ulm Area
Foundation, Inc.

GUIDELINES

Charlotte Raymond Anderson established this scholarship in 2019. She successfully taught several generations of Minnesota School District 88 (ISD 88, New Ulm, MN area) families for 37½ years. Her desire was to extend the legacy of her profession to future generations of motivated teachers. This fund was established to provide financial assistance for people with the sincere desire to attain the highest degree of proficiency in teaching. Charlotte chose New Ulm Area Foundation, Inc., a 501(c) (3) nonprofit community foundation, to administer the scholarship fund. The scholarship will be awarded to students pledging intent to study for a teaching career or teachers pursuing a graduate degree to increase their proficiency in teaching. This fund will award a $5,000 scholarship.

Awards are granted without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, sex, age, disability, ancestry, status as a veteran, or any other characteristic protected by federal, state, or local law ("Protected Characteristics").

Eligibility

Applicants eligible for the Charlotte Raymond Anderson Teaching Scholarship will have:
